

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As I had shared with you last week, appreciating that the weather here in January is unpredictable and routinely harsh, it seems fitting that we forgo efforts to meet outside and instead plan to worship together via Zoom video conferencing for the whole of the month of January. This decision should help our parishioners to be able to plan ahead and not be dependent on uncertainties of Friday night meteorological forecasts. We will of course hope and pray that we will be allowed by the Diocese to resume in person worship indoors soon, but for the next month, let us plan to gather in Christ's name via Zoom at 11am.
